Girls for Gender Equity is committed to the physical, psychological, social and economic development of girls and women. Through education, organizing and physical fitness, Girls for Gender Equity encourages communities to remove barriers and create opportunities for girls and women to live self-determined lives. Girls for Gender Equity celebrates all gender identities and expressions and encourages young trans women and gender non-conforming people of color to apply.*

Sisters in Strength Youth Organizer Application

What is Sisters in Strength?

- Sisters in Strength (SIS) is a 2-year youth organizing program for 15 young women of color, entering 10th or 11th grade.
- Programming is shaped both by the unique needs and interests of the SIS youth organizers, and by Girls for Gender Equity’s (GGE) vision, mission, and goals.
- SIS does community organizing around gender-based violence and confronts the multiple layers of individual and institutional discrimination that threaten the safety of girls and women.

Are you...?:

Before completing the application, please verify below that you are eligible for Sisters in Strength.

- ___ Available for an interview after school during the week of June 9-13th?
- ___ Interested in and passionate about social justice, especially gender- and race-related issues?
- ___ Eager to build community organizing and leadership skills in partnership with peers and adults?
- ___ Entering 10th or 11th grade?
- ___ Willing to make a 2-year commitment to being an SIS youth organizer?
- ___ Able to meet every Wednesday (except during school vacations) from 4pm-7pm?
- ___ Available to complete 2-4 additional hours of leadership opportunities each month?
- ___ Curious about what activism can look like within a community-based organization?

Time Commitment:

The Sisters in Strength youth organizing program is a 2-year time commitment, from early September 2014 – June 2016.

- Weekly
 - Group meeting on Wednesdays from 4pm-7pm
 - 1 homework assignment
- Monthly
 - 2-4 additional hours of leadership opportunities
- Over the Year
 - 6 check-ins with MSW intern to support your yearly goals

We have done our best to estimate time commitment. Please note that additional mandatory and optional events, trips, activities, etc. may occasionally arise during the course of the program year, primarily after school and on weekends. For events during the school day, school and parent/guardian permission will be required.

Compensation:

- Because Girls for Gender Equity values your time and wants to honor your hard work, Sisters in Strength youth organizers are provided with a monthly stipend.
- Metrocards are available as needed.

Internship Components:

- Community Organizing 101
 - Build community organizing skills
 - Develop social justice analysis
 - Engage in community organizing actions
 - Collaborate to conceptualize project for Year 2

- Community Organizing Project
 - Identify a problem within the scope of gender-based violence
 - Collaborate with and mobilize community members to action
 - Evaluate the process

- Ongoing Leadership Components:
 - Monthly peer workshops and counseling about the college process with former SIS youth organizers.
 - Quarterly check-ins with a Masters of Social Work intern. At GGE, we firmly believe that transformational leadership and community organizing are linked to personal wellness. Our structure includes circles of support at every level, from interns to management.
 - Facilitate workshops with the NYC school community based on what you're learning at GGE.

To apply for the Sisters in Strength Youth Organizing program, you must complete ALL of the following items:

1. Legibly fill out your Contact Information, your Parent/Guardian Contact Information, and School Information (page 4).
